Recreation Program Here Comes to Hilarious Climax

YOUNGSTERS LINE UP in front of the field house at Gardner Park for treats.

Youngsters turned their thoughts to school today after the city recreation program officially closed after 10 weeks of supervised play with a big field day Thursday.

The little kids had just as much fun ending the summer program as they had taking part in the varied activities during the warm summer months.

At Gardner Park some 200 of the youngsters turned out Thursday afternoon to take part in some old "standby" competitions and to receive treats donated by several concerns interested in the city's youth.

Young tikes sank their teeth into puffy marshmallows, bobbed their heads for apples and showed their athletic prowess in the bucket throw, foot race, bottle throw, hop race and balloon throw.

Afterwards they lined up in front of the fieldhouse to receive pop (a donation of the Fayette Coca-Cola Bottling Company), ice cream bars (a donation of the Cudahy Packing Company) and popcorn (a donation of Fites Coffee House and Anderson Food Market).

The popcorn was popped in the fieldhouse by Lela Backenstoe, Sara Keck, Carroll Steele and Hugh Rae, playground supervisors.

"Bigger boys in the community wound up the summer recreation season at both Wilson Field and Rose Avenue by staging field days.

Girl in Panties Holds up Traffic

BOSTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—A pretty blonde—nude except for white panties—stopped traffic at Beacon Street and Massachusetts Avenue.

Horns sounded and motorists whistled. Then Traffic Officer Joseph Ahearn took her to the Back Bay police station.

There she explained—after much prompting—that her name was Bridget McHugh of Cambridge, daughter of a Massachusetts Institute of Technology student.

She was hustled home—some distance from the scene of her traffic conquest.

Oh, yes, her age—five years old. Her mother said she'd done it many times before.

Meandering

By Wash Fayette

One of the few reminders of the violent tornado which swept this city, causing heavy damage, the night of September 8, 1885, was given a fresh coat of paint a few days ago, when the McLean building, corner of Court and Fayette streets, was repainted.

The tornado reminder is a section of one by four inch timber, several feet in length, which was driven into the metal ornament over one of the windows, and has remained there since that time.

The piece of board has been pointed out by thousands as a reminder of the tornado.

Painters found the board loose, as result of partial decay, and in need of being fastened in its long resting place.

When it is removed from the place it was driven by the windstorm, it is wanted by the Fayette County Historical Society to place in the museum which is to be established here.

Europe Arms Program Is Slashed by House

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Battered by the House, the administration's foreign arms aid program looked up to the Senate today for gentler treatment.

The program was slashed and hedged in with restrictions before the House passed it last night by a vote of 238 to 122.

It marked a bad beating for President Truman's congressional forces.

Despite their entreaties, a 50 percent cut was imposed on the $1,160,990,000 earmarked to help western European nations resist possible Soviet aggression. Congress could decide to appropriate the rest of the funds next year.

On top of that, the House decreed that at least half of the supplies sent abroad must be carried in ships flying the American flag. The lawmakers also tightened up a prohibition against using United States troops for other than non-combatant duty in connection with the program.

But the House granted the full $211,370,000 the president wanted for aid to Greece, and Turkey, and the $27,640,000 he asked for Iran, Korea and the Philippines and it beat back amendments to:

- (1) Add $100,000,000 for China and other southeastern Asia areas,
- (2) charge the western European allotment against the current U. S. military appropriation, (3) withhold funds from Britain as long as Ireland remains partitioned, (4) ban the use of U. S. troops for any purpose under the program, and (5) require the president to channel

Mother Confesses She Strangled Baby

CHICAGO, Aug. 19—(AP)—A young mother who first told police her six-day-old daughter was strangled by a "Negro prowler" was quoted by police early today as saying "I killed her."

Police Capt. John Enright said the woman, Mrs. Dorothy Skeoch, 22, admitted killing the child only a few hours after they arrived home from the hospital, where the baby was born.

The baby, Susan, was found dead in bed with a plastic diaper knotted tightly around her neck.

Mrs. Skeoch, a former payroll clerk at the University of Chicago, was quoted by Enright as saying she had been depressed because her husband, Thomas, 21, had been unemployed since he lost his job as a dockworker two weeks ago.

"There was no money coming in and I couldn't stand seeing the baby go through what I have gone through," Enright said the woman told him.

Wizard of KKK Drops Dead; Heart Attack Kills Dr. Green

ATLANTA, Aug. 19—(AP)—A heart attack last night killed Imperial Wizard Samuel Green, the fanatical ruler of the Ku Klux Klan.

There was no doubt, however, the Klan would carry on though minus the energetic leadership of the thin, 59-year-old physician with the Hitler-like mustache.

A leading Ku Kluxer here said the board of directors would probably meet next week to name a successor to the rasp-voiced little man who breathed a spirit of resurgence into the "invisible empire."

Though Dr. Green had been a klansman for 31 years, his family asked that the fact be omitted from his obituary.

At the time of his death, Dr. Green's passion for preaching "white supremacy" had made him a target for aroused newspaper editors and public officials.

They feared the Klan might ride to power again on prejudice, as it did in the decade of the 1920's, and become once more a powerful political factor in the south.

Finns Crack Plot of Reds

HELSINKI, Aug. 19—(AP)—The Finnish government moved swiftly today to smash a growing Communist offensive as police nabbed Red leaders in Kemi, scene of yesterday's strike violence which left one dead and nine injured.

Among those arrested was the chairman of the Kemi city council, Lahja Heikkilä, who was described as one of the leaders of yesterday's strike call. Another city council member also was reported arrested.

Reliable reports said Communists from southern Finland also were arrested at Kemi. This would indicate that Red agitators from Helsinki had been operating in the town, where 1,500 striking lumberjacks exchanged fire yesterday with police.

Government spokesman has declared the strike offensive is designed to make Finland into a Communist state.

City Clamps Down On Noisy Trucks

Drivers Ordered Brought in If Caught With Open Mufflers

Police Chief Vaiden Long has issued orders to the entire police force that, starting immediately, they are to bring to headquarters all drivers of trucks and other motor vehicles which are causing unnecessary noise by lack of mufflers or for other reasons.

Chief Long's action came after he had studied the situation for sometime and in response to many complaints of roaring motor vehicles.

Fines for such offenses is "not to exceed $50" under city ordinance 190 which was adopted by city council October 27, 1948. The ordinance is entitled "An ordinance prohibiting unnecessary noises within the corporate limits of the city of Washington."

Chief Long said Friday that warnings had been given many drivers during recent weeks, and in some instances it had brought results, so that the more drastic action of arrest and fines was decided upon to bring still better results.

The first driver coming under the anti-noise ban was Robert Edward Bobo, 18, Mt. Sterling. He was picked up Thursday evening for having no muffler on his car. Unable to furnish $25 bond he was placed in the city jail to await a hearing in police court Friday morning.

For a long time, complaints of residents have been made in increasing numbers as the offenses have doubled and trebled.

Many of the protests have come from people in ill health who have little opportunity to rest because of the dozens of roaring vehicles which pass in the night as well as in the daytime.

In Circleville, police are now warning truck and other drivers of noisy vehicles, that effective Aug. 25 arrests are to be made of violators.

However, Chief Long, who expressed himself as "100 percent in favor of stopping all noise possible," decided that arrests and (Please turn to Page Three)

Self Protection Aim Of Columbus Police

COLUMBUS, Aug. 19—(AP)—Chief Frank L. Harrison today ordered Columbus police to file assault and battery charges against anyone resisting arrest with force.

The charges should be filed "in every case where a person taken into custody strikes or otherwise menaces your person," Harrison said. He termed the procedure an exercise of policemen's "rights as citizens."

The chief said the order stemmed from the current investigation of police brutality charges lodged by the Columbus Bar Association.

Earl F. Morris, president of the association, yesterday submitted four new cases to a three-man committee investigating charges of police brutality.

This brought to 14 the number of cases which the committee, appointed by Mayor James A. Rhodes, is investigating.

Taft To Campaign In Ohio This Fall

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Ohio Senator Robert A. Taft, up for reelection in 1950, says he will start campaigning in Ohio this fall even if Congress stays in session.

Taft said he plans to tour all of the state's 88 counties to make "a report to the people."

"After all," he said in a statement, "I'm the representative of some 7,000,000 people in Ohio and I owe them a report of the actions of Congress."

He added that he wants to find out what the people are thinking on the trip. He estimated it will take him 13 weeks to cover the state.

Probers Close In On Vaughan

Motive Now Scented In Freezer Gifts

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) said today Senate five percent investigators are getting information about the activities of Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan "from sources very close to the president."

McCarthy said the data also is coming from persons very close "to Vaughan in the White House." Vaughan is President Truman's army aide.

McCarthy is a member of the special Senate subcommittee checking on whether improper influence has figured in the handling of government business.

Vaughan's name has bobbed up almost every day at the inquiry.

Senator Mundt (R-SD), another committee member, is seeking to link a flying trip to Paris in 1945 by three agents of a Chicago perfume firm with that company's gifts of home freezers to Vaughan.

McCarthy declined to elaborate on his statement to newsmen about the reported source of some of the committee's information on the general.

Mundt told reporters the testimony given the Senate investigations committee secretly Monday, (Please turn to Page Two)

Plane Crash Fatal to 27

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 19—(AP)—A British European Airways plane enroute here from Belfast crashed into a hill in thick weather today and killed 27 of its 32 occupants.

Four persons were killed in another crash at Baildon, near Shipley, Yorkshire, the civil aviation ministry announced.

All occupants of the planes were believed to have been British.

The BEA twin-engine transport, an hour out of Belfast, approached Manchester in a thick mist. It plunged into a mountainside, exploded and burned.

Police officers at the scene said they counted 22 passengers and four crew members dead. Another passenger, a woman, died enroute to the hospital in nearby Oldham. About half the passengers were women.

Two children, badly injured, were reported to be among the survivors.

Polio Victim Recovers Quickly After Shot of Unnamed Drug

COLUMBUS, Aug. 18—(AP)—Mary Lou Barnes, stricken a week ago by an ailment which her physician said he diagnosed as poliomyelitis, was back in class at Ohio State University today.

Her rapid recovery began after the physician administered one injection of a drug.

"She is feeling very good," said Mrs. Laura Barnes, mother of the 19-year-old sophomore.

The doctor, who asked that his name be withheld, insisted that Mary Lou's illness was polio. Her right side from her hip to her toes became stiff and numb he explained, and motion of the right wrist was affected; also there were other symptoms.

But whether the drug caused her recovery—well, he said, that could not be stated positively. The fact, remains, he declared, that she did recover, and anyone can draw their own conclusions.

A spokesman for the American Medical Association said in Chicago that he had no knowledge of any drug that would prevent polio or affect its course.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis shared the AMA viewpoint.

Officials of the foundation said in New York that about half the people get polio recover completely. This fact, they added, makes it almost impossible to determine the effect of any drug if it was used on only one or a few people.

Boy in Car Trunk Unknown to Driver

NEW YORK, Aug. 19—(AP)—Somewhere, perhaps a long way from home, an eight-year-old boy who can't speak may be locked in the trunk of an automobile.

The boy, Richard King of Long Island City, Queens, New York, who is mute, disappeared yesterday.

Police sent out a 15-state alarm today saying the boy may have crawled into the trunk of an automobile bearing Washington, D. C., license plates, without the driver's knowledge.

The car was near the Willow Brook State School, Long Island City, yesterday about the same time the boy last was seen. The number of the license plate was not known.

House Burned To Rout Out Besieged Man

CHICAGO, Aug. 19—(AP)—A barricaded Negro stood off 125 policemen in a three-hour gun battle last night before they set fire to his home, then riddled him with bullets as he attempted to escape.

He was wanted for shooting a child.

All during the battle the besieged Negro, Ernest Craig, 28, continued firing from windows with two revolvers and a rifle. Police poured hundreds of bullets and tossed about 200 tear gas bombs into the two-story frame house before they applied the torch.

As the flames spread throughout the first floor and started into the upper story, Craig went out a second-story window and slid to the ground in an 18-inch passageway between his corner home and the neighboring house.

Police spotted him after he had reached the ground and immediately opened fire with four machine guns. At least 50 bullets hit Craig. As he lay on the ground, Detective Charles McCabe stood

Polio Bans Relaxed In Some Ohio Towns

COLUMBUS, Aug. 19—(AP)—Darke County officials eased the ban on public gatherings because of polio yesterday—but only slightly.

Health authorities announced that churches would be allowed to hold one Sunday worship service for adults. Children under 18 will be banned from meetings, however.

Health Commissioner Maurice M. Kane said there have been no new cases of polio there since Aug. 12.

At Union City, on the Ohio-Indiana line, restrictions were eased, effective last night, to permit theaters, churches and taverns to operate for adults only. One mild case of polio was reported there yesterday.

Darke County was slated to get its second dusting with DDT tonight.

Relaxation of the curbs on meetings came as the state health department reported 40 new cases of the disease, bringing the total since Jan. 1 up to 583. The number was 235 ahead of the number of cases reported by the corresponding date last year.

One new case of infantile paralysis was reported yesterday in Youngstown, raising the number of cases in Mahoning County to nine.

Opposition Confab Crashed by Mayor

YOUNGSTOWN, Aug. 19—(AP)—A Democratic party strategy huddle in a rented local night club got an unexpected visitor Thursday evening.

In the midst of a discussion on how they should attempt to whip G.O.P. Mayor Charles P. Henderson, the door opened wide and in walked "his honor" himself. The "lions" looked at "Daniel" in astounded silence, then recovered and asked the mayor to join the Democratic municipal candidates in the social side of the evening.

Henderson grinned and declined the invitation, explained that "I must have got my wires crossed."

Sailor Killed in Crash West of Wilmington

WILMINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Ralph W. Fish, 23, a sailor stationed at the Port Columbus Naval Air Station, Columbus, was killed yesterday when two automobiles collided head on on U. S. Route 62 three miles west of here. Fish's home was at Bedford, Ind.

Population Increases At 200,000 a Month

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—The United States population is growing at the rate of 200,000 a month and may reach 150,000,000 by November 1.

This report from the Census Bureau said the estimated population was 149,215,000 on July 1.

License Rules To Be Used for Quiz Controls

Big Loopholes Left, However—Commission To Pass Judgement

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—The Federal Communication Commission today announced sharp curbs on radio prize programs.

The commission said that, effective Oct. 1, it will invoke new rules under which it will refuse licenses or renewal of licenses to broadcasters "following a policy or practice" of advertising lotteries or "offering prizes dependent in whole or in part upon lot or chance."

The action, regarded as reaching many cash and merchandise give-away programs now on the air, grows out of an investigation in progress for more than a year.

The proposed regulation was fought vigorously by most of the radio program content.

The commission's reply was that it is empowered to forbid the use of the air for promoting a lottery.

Lottery Is Key

The commission said in today's order, covering standard, FM and television stations, that whether a given program violates the lottery section of the communications act "depends on the facts of each case."

However, it asserted "it 'will in any event,' consider a program to violate the act if a prize 'of money or thing of value is awarded to any person whose selection is dependent in whole or in part upon lot or chance,' and if as a condition to winning or competing:

1. The winner furnishes money or other thing of value or is required to have in his possession a product of the program sponsor.

2. The winner is required to be listening to or viewing the program in question.

3. The winner must correctly answer a question, the answer of which has been given on the program "or where aid to answering the question correctly is given—on the program either on the spot or through a previous broadcast.

4. The winner must answer the phone in a prescribed manner or with a prescribed phrase, or is required to write a letter in a prescribed manner or containing a prescribed phrase "if the prescribed manner of answering the phone or writing the letter has been broadcast over the station in question."

One Dissenter

Commissioner Freida Hennock dissented to the proposed regulations.

It was announced that three members of the commission now away from Washington—Chairman Wayne Coy, and Commissioners Rosel Hyde and Robert F. Jones—did not take part in the decision.

Thus, the matter was considered by a bare quorum of four members of the seven-member FCC. With the Hennock dissent, the new rules were adopted by (Please turn to Page Two)

Clark Is Approved For Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(AP)—Confirmed by 73 to 8 vote after a hot-tempered Senate session, Attorney General Tom C. Clark delayed today taking the oath as the 86th justice to mount the Supreme Court bench.

Similarly, Senator J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island, unanimously approved by the Senate to succeed Clark in the cabinet, held up his retirement from the Senate, probably until next week.

From Rhode Island came reports that Edward L. Leahy, former director and now adviser to that state's finance department, may be named by Democratic Gov. John O. Pastore to fill the Senate seat vacated by McGrath.

McGrath will turn in his chairmanship of the Democratic national committee at a meeting of the group next Wednesday.

Clark told reporters he wants to talk with McGrath and Chief Justice Fred Vinson before he decides when to take the high court oath. He said he would like to have it administered by Vinson.

Jobless Here Shows Decline During Month

Sum of $7,826 Paid To Claimants in This County

The number of Fayette County unemployed workers declined during the month of July and benefit payments were 5.7 percent under those paid in June, Ward C. Miller, local BUC manager reported Friday.

A total of $7,826.34 was paid and of this amount, Ohio law claimants received $4,744.34 and recipients under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act $3,082.00.

The average weekly benefit amount for total unemployment in Fayette County was $17.81.

The total unemployment benefits paid in Fayette County, January through July, 1949, amount to $81,234.35 or an average of $11,604.85 a month.

This decline in benefit payments is general throughout the state, the over-all decline for Ohio being 2.9 percent.

Placements made by the employment service, a division of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, during the last two months have shown a substantial gain over the same two months of 1948, Miller stated.

Radio Give-aways

Miss Hennock took the view that the proposed regulation was one which should have been handled by the Justice Department or by congressional action. She said the FCC had broadened the interpretation of the criminal statutes, and that so far as the lottery question is concerned, would affect prize offers "in which none of the participants risked anything of value."

HARD JOLT, BELIEF
NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Radio giveaways will be hard hit by today's ruling of the Federal Communications Commission, trade circles here believe.

Network officials declined comment until they could study the ruling.

It has been estimated that from $3,500,000 in merchandise and cash—mostly merchandise—is given away annually on the four major networks alone.

The trade publication Radio Daily said in one recent week the four networks had 33 giveaways with total prizes of $205,000. However, some of these prizes stand for several weeks before being won, so the amount actually awarded each week would be somewhat lower.

The great bulk of giveaway prizes come not from the networks or the sponsors, but from manufacturers who donate their products in return for free mention on the program.

The devices used in awarding prizes on radio shows cover a wide range, so it was not immediately apparent just which ones might fall under the FCC's new regulations effective Oct. 1.

It was believed one that would get the axe was the telephone call giveaway in which the contestant has to be at home to answer the telephone, and has to listen to the program, and has to identify a tune, solve a riddle or answer a question correctly.

Waterhaul Is Made By City Officials

City Manager W. W. Hill, Councilman Richard R. Willis and Street Superintendent Clyde Smith, found nothing worth while in the government surplus material at Dayton, Tuesday, when they went to that city in the hope of finding some street cleaning equipment.

Not a thing was found that was acceptable to the officials, and much of the equipment was in very bad condition, they reported.

The officials were after equipment which they hoped might be in the mass of surplus government material, and which could be purchased at a heavy saving to the city.

Former King Carol Weds Mme. Lupescu

LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 19 (AP)—Former King Carol of Romania and Mme. Elena Lupescu were married in a religious ceremony last night at the ex-monarch's Estoril residence.

The Rev. Hartinian Ivinovitch, head of the Romanian (Greek Orthodox) Church in Paris, came here to officiate at the ceremony. The ceremony took place in strict privacy in Carol's villa. Only the former monarch's chamberlain, Ernest Urdarianu, other members of the royal household, and a few close friends were present.

Urdarianu said it was impossible to hold the ceremony before because no Romanian Church representative was in Portugal. He said special arrangements had been made to bring the Rev. Ivinovitch from Paris. Carol and Elena whose romance flourished more than two decades despite family objections and political upheavals were married in Rio De Janeiro in an "extremis" civil ceremony in July, 1947, when Elena was believed at the point of death.

Atomic Revelations

By ROY L. SMITH

It is quite impossible to estimate the profound changes that are to be introduced into the life of the average man by nuclear science and adaptations of atomic power. Thus far the bomb has so completely absorbed our attention that the industrial and scientific uses of atomic energy have been almost completely overlooked.

It is inevitable, however, that in time the more revolutionary effects of the applications of atomic energy will come to the front. Industry, medicine, transportation, communication, domestic economy, banking, commerce, and even education are to be profoundly altered. It is impossible to live in the very midst of such incomprehensible stores of energy and continue thinking in the old terms.

In Him We Move

Paul, the most famous of the early Christian apostles, one time quoted a comment concerning God which has come to have rare meaning in the light of the revelations that have come out of the laboratory of the nuclear scientist. "In Him we live, and move, and have our being" (Acts 17:28).

As long as God was thought of as some far-away divine personality who only revealed himself in thunder storms, political crises, and Sunday morning sermons, men found it a little difficult to think of him as being real. But when we fully realize that even the graphite point of the lead pencil is vibrant with an amazing energy, and that in the rubber on the other end is stored up power sufficient to blow our end of town into bits, then something of the mystery becomes vivid.

The Scientists Are Very Humble

All that was yesterday. Today the scientists are very humble, for they, better than any other men now living, know the vast and astounding implications of the cracking of the atom and the release of atomic energy.

The technicians working in the laboratories with incalculable powers and incomprehensible forces have entered into a certain spiritual kinship with the ancient Hebrew singers who stood in awe of the forces of nature, and spoke with adoration and reverence about the moon, the stars, the mighty deep, and the surge of life that sweeps through all of nature.

The Ancients and Mysteries

The ancient Hebrew Psalmists, looking out upon the works of nature without scientific training, at least in its modern sense, described everything in terms of God. The wonders of the universe, its mysteries, powers, beauties, and laws, were to them manifestations of divinity. They could find no other explanation.

Foster Homes Here Sought For Children

The Fayette County Child Welfare Board is deeply concerned with the problem of finding some good foster homes in this city and county for some of the children assigned to its care.

Especially needed at this time are some homes of the right type to care for children of pre-school age (under six years).

These children who are wards of the county through no fault of their own, in many cases are of very good parentage. There are varied reasons for broken homes through which some of these children become unhappy victims. In some instances a widowed mother, or a father who has lost his wife, are unable to meet the worries and financial necessities for proper care of a family of children.

The Fayette County Children's Home has neither the facilities nor personnel to care for pre-school age children in the manner which they require. The state urges that such children be given the advantage of well regulated private homes, either rural or city. In fact, the state urges that all children who are wards of the county would have better opportunity for future citizenship in the right kind of private homes where they are accepted as members of the family.

This is not meant as any criticism of the children's home in this county. It stands high in public as well as official regard for its excellence in administration and care of children. But the theory advanced by the state officials and many others is that no child has as favorable a chance to make the most of life if his or her formative years are spent in an institution. Some may regard this as idealistic yet it presents a problem for every child welfare board.

Good private homes which accept full responsibility for such children are hard to find, even though that home is paid by the county for taking care of these young people.

For this reason every effort must be made to have the Fayette County Children's Home provided with the necessary help and facilities for the proper upbringing of many of these children where no satisfactory home can be found for them.

Judge Rell G. Allen, through whose court pass many problems relating to proper assignment of such little people, has been advancing the idea that there should be enlargement of facilities and ample provision of necessary help to take care of many cases which often become a serious problem to the county's child welfare board. He is deeply sympathetic with the children's situation and yet appreciates the county board's difficulties.

Out on the county home grounds is a small brick building which originally was constructed for a small hospital but has not been used for years. Judge Allen, who cooperates fully with the Fayette County Child Welfare Board, asserts that this building can be rehabilitated to meet some of the county home's needs. It can be made a receiving ward for pre-school age children for such period of time, whether weeks or months, needed to place them elsewhere. The expense would not be exorbitant. Allen declares.

Under present conditions there are very young children who cannot be satisfactorily given care at the county home for considerable periods of time. Many of them meantime are subjected to pathetic living conditions elsewhere.

This is a situation which a prosperous county like Fayette should not tolerate. It deserves the best thought of our citizens as well as of all officials who have responsibility in the matter.

While this would not relieve the need for the proper kind of foster homes, it would help in some pressing cases where immediate care of some small children is an important factor.

Dogs Dogging It In Dog Days

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 — (AP) — These may be dog days but the dogs are dogging it.

There hasn't been a grade A, all-dolled-up-with-pictures dog story in the papers since Hector was a pup.

And this (you should pardon the expression) is a doggone shame.

When I was breaking into the newspaper business, shortly after the battle of Chickamauga, a wise if watery-eyed old city editor told me:

"Bub, if you want people to read what you write, remember this:

"One weather story equals two society divorces and one good dog story will beat any weather story that ever came down the pike."

This worthy man later died of a pickled liver, but his advice still seems sound to me.

The only trouble is, the dogs aren't cooperating.

Cats get into the news. So do elephants and monkeys. Even fish are splashing their way into the headlines, to say nothing of some publicity hungry birds that have been loitering hopefully around newspaper hangouts.

But dogs? Except for Popo, the wire-haired terrier, they've turned as camera-shy as a movie blonde with two black eyes.

You remember Popo. He showed up only last Sunday, swimming bravely in the general direction of Ireland. He was nine miles off the main coast when a tuna fishing boat hauled him aboard, pretty well pooped.

Popo's story was that he had fallen off a yacht, but nobody believed him. Obviously, he was out for glory as a transatlantic swimmer. And it was good to know that one pup, in these decadent days, still had some git-up-and-go.

Cats, now — they're performing all over the place.

First there was the mouser aboard the British warship Amethyst. He got a real, honest-to-George military decoration for holding the rats at bay while the Amethyst cat one better by the Chinese Reds.

Then there was Kiki. He went the Amethyst cat one better by getting bottled up himself. Came in on the liner Atlantic reeking of strong drink, walking with unsteady dignity, hiccupping as he purred.

Kiki just loves cocktails," confided his proprietor, Mrs. Winifred Hunter of the U. S. embassy at Madrid. "He'll go for a Manhattan, a martini, anything. Carries like a gentleman, too; he's never had but one hangover."

Yes, all the beast are getting into the act.

There's Mickey, the New York monkey that wipes the dishes after every meal. Just like a husband, Mickey also hangs out the window and gives pretty girls a big hello. Just like a Well of course, there was Grady, the cow that got caught in the silo. And Bimbo, the midget elephant that died of pneumonia, poor little guy. And Booger, the Rhode Island red that hangs around the Hialeah bar in Miami, mooching cigarettes.

And there was the fish up at Hyaburg, Alaska, that was found to have a bottle of sherry — unopened — in his stomach. And —

Fish stories? Not me — I'm a dog story man, myself. Can I help it if the dogs have all abdicated?

'Majority' and 'Minority' Bunk

I recently made a broadcast and wrote some columns on the Barden bill and received a huge mail beyond anything I had ever received before, from readers and listeners. The mail contained very few screwball letters; rather they represented an intelligent approach to problems of education, religion and government from many different standpoints. They indicate a profound public concern over the future of this country.

However, two words seem to appear in many of the letters which I believe to be wholly false in relation to this subject and which violate the concept of the American state altogether. In his 75th birthday address at Palo Alto, Herbert Hoover said:

"A device of these advocates of gigantic spending is the manipulation of words, phrases and slogans to convey new meanings, different from those we have long understood. These malign distortions drug thinking. They drown it in emotion."

This is so true and the use of the words majority and minority is characteristic of the sloppy thinking introduced into our lives during the past 20 years. Before that, these words were only employed in relation to actual votes taken, a majority representing the expression of more than half of those voting.

No American regarded himself as part of a majority in any other way. An American was an individual who did as he chose, joining many groups or none by his own decisions and at his own risk. Even when the accidents of birth and environment placed one in a particular group, he did not stress that fact unless he happened to be a snob and spoke of his ancestors as though that made a real distinction.

For political reasons, the Roosevelt politicians found it advantageous to stress differences and to bring people together in self-serving groups. Out of the amalgam of such groups, often antagonistic to each other but united by the expectancy of special privileges, the New Dealers built their winning majorities. It was a splendid political gambit. Unfortunately it is wrecking our country.

For instance, according to my correspondence, if a man is a Protestant, he belongs to the majority. But if the same man is a Republican, he belongs to the minority. Also, if he is a capitalist, he is in the minority, but if he is a low-earner, he is in the majority. If he belongs to a labor union, he is among the minority of workers, but if he likes baseball, he is among the majority of Americans.

How does one define a person in a free country as belonging to "the" majority? For instance, if a man is a Negro, he is in a minority group, but if he lives in New York and is a Democrat, then he belongs to the majority and has a more telling political power than the chairman of the Republican county committee.

In fact, if he is a Communist and lives in Marcanonio's district, he belongs to the majority and is more positively represented in Congress than I am, for no member of Congress has ever been elected by my vote. I belong to the minority party in my district, whose representative is none other than Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.

Some say that Jews are a minority, but when Sidney Hillman was alive, he was a tremendous factor in American affairs, and Dave Dubinsky has a chance of ousting Ed Flynn as the boss of New York or, am I mistaken about Ed Flynn, the boss really being someone called Costello who is of Italian extraction and is therefore of a minority?

The fact is that the American philosophy holds that this is a nation of individuals, who possess inalienable rights which are inherent in them and which no majority or minority can constitutionally take from them. That is the essence and genius of the American way. We are people. We are individuals. We are families. But we are not a majority or a minority, a mob, a mass, a nation of classes.

No American wears a tag stipulating that he is a capitalist or a proletarian, that he is a first-class or a second-class citizen. It is time we dropped the "majority" — "minority" nonsense.

Diet and Health Care Different Now After Operations

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

UNTIL a few years ago, the patient who had undergone a major operation was kept in bed until his incision healed, often a matter of two weeks or longer.

Today, all this has changed in the majority of operations because we have discovered many advantages in getting such patients up and about as soon as possible; usually on the day following operation.

Known as "early ambulation," this practice involves more than merely routing the patient out of bed. It is a process which must be prepared for, assisted, and carefully supervised.

Within several hours after operation, the patient should be turned over at least once every two hours and reminded to take deep breaths every five minutes. The legs should be exercised about 20 times in each hour. This consists of bending the patient extend and bend his feet and toes, knees and hips.

Heel Height

During walking, the patient should wear shoes with heels of the same height as those ordinarily worn before operation. If a woman, used to high heels, tries to walk around in flat slippers, there may be a strain on certain muscles of the legs. This may lead to inflammation of the deep leg veins.

Getting out of bed should be done in such a way as to put the least possible strain on muscles in the area of the incision. After being turned on the side in which the operation was done, the patient bends his hips and knees so that the lower leg is brought to the edge of the mattress. Then he is assisted to a sitting position. When he sits up, he is instructed to take deep breaths and to cough several times in order to get rid of secretions which may have accumulated in the lungs.

The patient is allowed to walk 20 or 30 feet and sits in a chair for the few minutes needed to straighten the bed. After another short walk he is returned to the bed. This process is repeated two or three times on the first day. Walking about improves the circulation in the legs and helps to prevent blood-clot formation. After the fourth day the patient is usually able to get out of bed without help.

It would appear that getting out of bed early after operation speeds up the healing of wounds and may be effective in preventing blood-clot formation, inflammation of the veins, and collapse of the lungs.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

C. S.: What causes boils?

Answer: The cause of boils is lowered resistance to a type of germ commonly found in the skin, which is known as the staphylococcus. This germ is rubbed into the skin as a result of contact with clothing or dirty hands containing the germ.

However, boils are frequently seen in persons suffering from diabetes.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19—(P)—By this time you may be getting dizzy trying to follow all the international plans, pacts and programs. The Marshall Plan, The Atlantic Pact, Arms For Europe, the Council of Europe, Western Federation. What do they mean?

They mean — except for Western Federation, which is something in the future — just this: The nations of the western world are teaming up in one way or another. Take the plans one by one:

The Marshall Plan — this is economic help which the United States is giving to 16 nations to help them recover from the war and stand off Communism.

They are Britain, France, Western Germany, Netherlands, Italy, Austria, Belgium, Luxembourg, Greece, Norway, Sweden, Trieste, Turkey, Denmark, Iceland, Ireland.

The Atlantic Pact — under this, a military alliance, the following 12 nations agree to go to one another's help if they're attacked: United States, Canada, Belgium, Britain, Luxembourg, France, Netherlands, Norway, Denmark, Italy, Iceland, Portugal.

The arms program — under this the U. S. — if congress approves — will help arm its partners in the Atlantic Pact, or some of them, so they could withstand a Russian attack for a while. Congress has begun debate. It's expected to approve.

The council of Europe — thirteen European nations are taking part. The council can't really do anything. Its job is limited to debate and recommendations on political, cultural and some economic matters.

It cannot discuss defense problems. That's a job for the Atlantic Pact countries. The 13 nations taking part are: Britain, France, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Ireland, Iceland, Luxembourg, Greece, Turkey.

The council is really a parliament of nations, Europe's first. It's the outgrowth of the European unity movement began by Winston Churchill in 1946.

The council can't enforce anything, so its findings on whatever it examines can only be recommendations. That's another way of saying this:

No nation which has joined it has yielded any of its own sovereignty. That is, no nation or group of nations in the council can tell any other member-nation what it must do.

The council is divided into two bodies: a committee of ministers (a cabinet) and a consultative assembly (a parliament).

Each member nation of the council is allowed one delegate — its own foreign minister — in the committee of ministers. This committee can limit and control the matters to be discussed by the assembly.

In the assembly — which is free only to approve or disapprove matters put before it by the ministers — there are more than 100 members, or delegates, from the member-nations. The number of delegates from each country depends upon its size. The council started meeting Aug. 8.

This may be the first step toward a real union of the countries of Western Europe.

Federation — a number of resolutions have been introduced in congress this year, urging various kinds of union among nations.

They range from suggestions that a limited number of western nations unite, somewhat as the United States are united, to a union of all the members of the United Nations.

No action can be expected in congress before next year. Hearings on the resolutions may start in the Senate in January.

Circus Coming Here on Sept. 2

Shows To Be Given In Highley Field

The circus is coming to town. Advance men for the Dailey Brothers Circus are here today making arrangements for the colorful big posters and taking care of other preliminary details. The giving-ring circus travels by railroad. It is scheduled to arrive here early the morning of Sept. 2.

The tents are to be raised on the Highley field on the CCC highway west of Washington C. H.—a new location for circuses here.

Performances are to be given both afternoon and night.

The show, which headquarters at Gonzales, Texas, claims to be one of the best of its size on the road.

The advance men, Earl DeGlopper and Press Agent Robert M. Burns, said "the Dailey Brothers show admits it is second in size in America, but has no real rival in zoological novelties and all-round circus appeal."

Burns said the circus clowns provide the usual buffoonery and that there are plenty of wild animal acts. One of the features is the contingent of 25 elephants, he added. Trick roping and steer riding were listed among the entertainment events.

Aerialists, bareback riders and acrobats are among the troupers who are to put on the time tested circus program.

Burns said "this circus has the 'new look' without having lost or sacrificed the old-fashioned circus atmosphere or features."

Draft horses for which the circuses of the old days were famous are used extensively by the Dailey Brothers, Burns said. There will be no parade, but the advance men gave a tip on the next best thing—the unloading and setting up the morning of the show.

The circus is to come in over the D T & I Railroad. Just where it will unload remained uncertain for the present.

WHS Football Practice Set To Start Next Monday

Football days are approaching once more.

Coach Fred Pierson has issued his annual autumn call for the WHS Lion hopefuls to meet Monday at 9:30 A. M. in the high school gym.

There they are to be given the customary thorough physical examination. Then equipment is to be issued.

The schedule set up for the Lions is wasting no time Monday afternoon the squad is to report to Gardner Park for the first drill. It is scheduled to start at 4 P. M.

The first few days, Coach Pierson said, will be given over to conditioning routine such as calisthenics and running around the cinder path to tighten leg muscles.

Workout Schedule

From there on, however, the workouts are to be stepped up, probably on a two-a-day basis.

Plans call for giving out and running through the first plays before the end of the week.

Scrimmage may not start for some time, the coach said but he added that there would be "contact" drills before much delay. That, he went on to explain, meant that the Lions would be worked out on fundamentals.

Pierson is to take charge of the line and the coordinating of the team. Steve Lewis, the assistant football coach, is to have charge of the backfield as in the past. Ronald Guinn, the junior high coach, is to lend a hand with the early preparations of the squad, and later devote his full time to the Lions Cubs.

The outlook for this year's Lions, Pierson admits, is not exactly rosy—but he is far from exacting.

In the first place he is counting on only seven lettermen coming back from last year's squad for the nucleus of the oncoming outfit.

15 Lettermen Lost

Fifteen lettermen, including nine regular first stringers, were lost last June through graduation. The vacancies they left will not be easy to fill.

The backfield, Pierson said, would have to be replaced almost in its entirety. Only Jim Aleshire, who was used mainly on defense, is back. Gone will be Captain Gene Sagar, the fullback of last year and Joe Brandon, the quarterback and line backer; Bill Campbell, a half-backer and passer; Bill Smith, the other halfback and Charles Dray and Dave Looker, the utility halfbacks.

From the line have gone such keystones as Dick O'Brien, end; Bob Dawson, end; Freelan Van Meter, tackle; George Phillips, center; Marion Baughn; Dee Foster, Jack Stackhouse, Dick Roush and Bob Thompson.

Gene Grace, a diminutive but rugged halfback, also was lost to the team when he joined the navy. He would have been a senior this year.

Picture's Bright Spots

But the picture is not as dark as the loss of so many veterans might indicate. The seven lettermen returning saw plenty of action last year and Coach Pierson said he was counting on them for the framework of this year's team.

Coming up from junior high school to join Aleshire in the backfield are three boys who ran wild last fall as Lion Cubs—Bob Alkire, Carl Smith and Bob Smith. All three are fast and spectacular open field runners and Alkire has shown that he has what it takes to be an outstanding forward passer and a sharp ball handler from the T formation.

Bill Horney, this year's captain, who missed very little time from his guard post last fall, and Barry Smith, chosen on the all-SWO team after his first year at end, are the mainstays of the new line. Other lettermen from last year's squad for the new line are Glenn Codd and Joe Burke, tackles, and Joe Mann, an end.

Nine Good Prospects

Seven boys who saw action last year with the Lions and a couple who got experience with the Cubs will help fill the gaps in the line. From last year's squad there will be Dale Orihood, a dropkicker who was a tower of strength whenever he repaced Phillips at center; George and Rod Beaver, tackle and guard; Dick Eckle, guard; Bill Arnold, guard; Jim Johnson, end and Ray Anderson, an end and back.

From last year's Cubs the Lions will get two rugged linemen, Wayne Van Meter (brother of Freelan) and Dick Wolf.

So, while only seven lettermen from last year will be back in the blue and white this season, the coaches have some fairly well seasoned material to fill the 15 vacancies created by graduation.

10-Game Football Schedule Opens at Columbus Sept. 16; Five Games To Be Played Here

The Lions of WHS will open their football season Sept. 16 at Columbus with a game with Linden-McKinley.

The 10-game schedule, just released, lists five home games and five on foreign fields. All are to be played at night under the lights as has been the custom for several years.

Conspicuous by their absence are the Hillsboro Indians, tradi-

Harness Racing Is in Scramble

Three Horses Share In Futurity Trot

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 19.—(P)—That argument over the top 3-year-old trotters of the season, begun at the Hambletonian last week, was still unsettled today after three heats had been raced in the review futurity trot at the Illinois State Fair yesterday.

Bangaway, which won a heat Wednesday before rain postponed further competition until yesterday, was declared winner of the race although third on both miles. Since there were three heat winners, the decision was based on standings in the summaries which showed Bangaway 133.

Miss Tilly, winner of the Hambletonian and sixth Wednesday, won the second heat, but raced tenth on her final trip. Volume, third Wednesday, won the final ride yesterday after placing fourth on the second mile. Eleventh Hambletonian starters were in the field of 13.

The two year olds failed to produce a decisive winner. Lusty Son, from the Hayes Fair Acres of Du Quoin, was declared winner of the Greyhound Trot—called the Baby Hambletonian.

Lusty Song won the first heat in 2:06 2-5 and finished second to Arden Homestead's Florican in the second. Florican placed second on the first trip and won the second in 2:07.

Our Time, stablemate of Good Time, the 3 years old pacing champ, won the Little Pat 2 year old pace by taking the second heat in 2:06 3-5. The filly was second to Irish Hal in 2:07 3-5 on the first trip.

Rodney, harness horse of the year for 1948, collected another victory yesterday when he won both heats of the Nancy Hanks trot pulled up. His kid brother, Egan Hanover, was second on the first trip and Pronto Don of the Hayes stable followed the winner home on the second.

Commercial League Organizes Monday

The Commercial Bowling League for 1949-50 will be set up Monday night when the captains of last year's teams meet at Bowland at 8 P. M.

Andy Loudner, manager of the alleys, announced that the lanes will be open to the public August 25.

He added that there are still openings on Friday night for any teams wishing to reserve time that evening.

The first tournament will be on Friday, August 26, when the mixed doubles teams roll.

Coach Pierson said he had "no idea" how many boys would try out for football this year. But, he repeated what he has always said—that they all will have an equal chance. At the same time he let it be known that while past performance will be given due credit, it is no guarantee of a place on the team. He made it plain that the boys will have to earn their positions and that every one is always open to those who show the best.

In the nightcap, the Lawson team pulled itself together and held the Drakes to just a 5-0 victory as the winners extended their streak to 14 in a row.

NCR gets today's award for persistence.

They kept trying and trying and were slapped down 14 times during the season. But they kept coming back like a song.

Last night they rang up "No Sale" for the Welding School.

The Welding School started out with their torches high as they got away to a two-run lead in the first inning.

They piled on two more in the fourth and led by 4 to 0.

But all salesmen know it takes time to break down resistance and NCR came to bat in the fifth and rang up three sales to make it 4-3.

They added another in the sixth and it was all tied up.

They got still two more in the seventh and held the Welders to one tally in their half as the game ended, 6-5.

The Welders had the power, though, as Self and Curry slammed triples and Creamer got three for three.

But they also made six errors which helped their downfall, in addition to two NCR double plays that snuffed out rallies.

Pyle gave up five hits in losing, three of them to Donohue. Matson got credit for NCR's third victory.

The opener is the last postponed game from the first round. The winner of the round goes into the playoffs and Chillicothe leads the Senators by just one game.

Good Hope Shake Up

Tom Smalley, Good Hope strategist, said he plans to shake up the infield that made nine errors against Bowersville last week.

He added that he will stick by the same boys who have been coming through all season but will shift a few positions around to strengthen his defense.

The Moose-Good Hope battle is impossible to figure out on paper.

Their first meeting back in June went 16 innings, with the Moose winning by a 7-6 score.

The Good Hope ace, Wackman, pitched most of that game and set a season record by striking out 21 men but got credit for the loss.

If you try to go by the teams each played, it is equally hopeless.

Good Hope beat Frankfort by 6-4. Frankfort shaded the Moose, 2-1.

The Moose whipped Bowersville by 9-2. Bowersville won from Good Hope, 5-3.

Let's take a team that both of them licked.

The Moose beat Midland City, 6 to 5. Good Hope clipped the same club by 1 to 0. It's as even as a table top.

K. Dawes To Face Wackman

The Dawes brothers have been alternating on the mound for the Moose but it is reported that Kenny, the fastballer, will start against Smalley's men.

Charlie, their curveball artist, will stand by.

For Good Hope, it will be Wackman swinging that left arm back and whipping his assortment over the plate.

Alex has fanned 122 batters in eight games for an average of 15.2 per contest.

The Moose trail Bowersville by one full game with Good Hope and Greenfield tied for third-place, just a half-game out of second.

The Greenfield vs Bowersville match this Sunday can also turn the league topsy-turvy.

The games remaining favor the Moose since they play just two, against Greenfield and Wilmington.

Good Hope has three to play, Hillsboro, Bowersville and Midland City.

The last chance for the Senators to gain a playoff berth from the first round will come in the 1:30 P. M. opener at Ashville Sunday.

The doubleheader which matches Chillicothe and the WCH club also defies prediction.

If you want to go back a month, the edge would go to Chillicothe. In their last second-round meeting, the Senators blew up after leading by 5-4 for five innings. Chillicothe got five runs in a big sixth inning to win, 11-6.

But, since then the Senators have gotten up steam.

Looking at teams they both played, the Senators have to be given a slight nod on defensive play while the visitors show a slim batting edge.

Chillicothe beat Jeffersonville, 15-3 and 14-1, while the Senators did it with 9-3 and 8-0. The Cubs got six hits in each twin bill.

The Chillicothe team clipped Grove City by 7 to 5 and the Senators won by 9 to 6.

These are the games that reflect a team's present form. Contests played a month or two ago have to be forgotten.

Harris May Be Surprise Starter

The deciding factor of the crucial first game on Sunday might come as a surprise to Chillicothe in the form of one Jack Harris.

This righthander gave the Senators a shot in the arm when he uncovered his slants for the first time last Sunday and spun a two hit, 6-0, shutout.

It is reported that Jack will take on the first game and Woodruff, Manager Craft's other ace, will be saved for the caper. If the WCH boys do come through in the opener, a first round playoff will be necessary.

The Senators are also a game behind Chillicothe in the second round, with four wins and two defeats.

Cubs Look For Victory

The Jeffersonville Cubs are set on snapping their losing streak at Wilmington Sunday.

The Cubs have won but two games in the second round of play while losing their last five straight against the league's top teams.

The Cubs can bring their average up to .500 by sweeping their remaining three games.

What Are Yanks? Good or Lucky?

Last Game Won On Senator Error

(By the Associated Press)
Are the New York Yankees a greater club than most realize, or are they just plain lucky?
There are two schools of thought on that subject. Undoubtedly, the Yankees are getting more than their share of breaks this season. But their backers insist that's just what makes them a great club.
The Yankees take advantage of every lapse by the opposition, they claim, and often make their own breaks.
Why do these lapses occur more against the Yankees than against any other club? That might be the secret of the Yankees' success. It is conceivable that the Yankees, with their constant drive and unwillingness to concede, pressure their opponents into miscues and mental lapses.
The Yankees have been winning despite 53 injuries, several to key men. They've been winning the close ones, too.
Victory on Error
Look what happened yesterday. They spotted the Washington Senators a 4-0 lead in the fourth inning, but came on to win 5-4. As in a majority of their one-run victories, an error by the opposition led to the Yankees' winning margin.
The Yankees already had tallied twice in the last half of the fourth on Tommy Henrich's home run, a fluke double by Johnny Lindell on a pop that fell in back of first and Gerry Coleman's single. They had two men on base and two out. Cliff Mapes hit an easy roller to second, but Al Kozar bobbled it, then was slow to pick it up. Two Yankees crossed the plate to deadlock the score at 4-4.
A double by Phil Rizzuto and Mapes' single off Mickey Harris in the sixth, produced the winning run.
The victory increased the Yankees' first place lead over the idle Boston Red Sox to four full games.
Dodgers Flounder
In the National, the Brooklyn Dodgers continued to flounder around. They dropped their third in a row to Philadelphia's Phils, 9-5, and fell a full game behind the pace-setting St. Louis Cardinals. The Redbirds and Cincinnati's Reds enjoyed an off day.
The third place Cleveland Indians remained in the American League fight, walloping the St. Louis Browns, 14-4, in the only night game in the majors. Bob Lemon had little trouble racking up his 15th triumph, while Larry Doby and Mickey Vernon each poled three-run homers for the Tribe.
The victory left the Indians five games behind the Yankees and one in back of the Red Sox.
Home runs by Bob Elliott, Jeff Heath, Elbie Fletcher and Jim Russell helped the Boston Braves defeat the New York Giants, 10-6.
Rookie Jim Walsh, making his second start for Pittsburgh, pitched the Pirates to a three-hit, 2-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Ralph Kiner drove in both Pittsburgh runs with a single and triple against Doyle Lade.
The Detroit Tigers blanked the Chicago White Sox, 2-0, to snap a 19-inning scoring drought. At the same time, when the Bengals tallied in the first, it marked the first run against White Sox pitching in 28 consecutive innings.

Frank were established in the States, and safe once more.
And happy, thought Terry, the happiest people I've ever known, I suppose. Yet
Helen had lost her first baby during the war years and she would not have another child.
Southard asked, startled, is it possible that you are Mark Austin's daughter, Miss Austin?
"Of course, she's Mark Austin's daughter," said Helen, as if it were unthinkable that she could be anyone else's; as indeed it was, and Terry asked, not too quickly, "Did you ever know him, Mr. Southard?"
She listened for the note in his voice with which she was familiar; practically everyone who had heard of Mark Austin, rich or poor, successful or a failure, sounded that note when confronted with the daughter, who embodied all that his name stood for: storybook adventure, fabulous wealth.
The note was sounded as Southard said regretfully, "No, I am sorry to say I never met him. He would have been a man to know. I read of his tragic death with dismay. He was a truly great man, a pioneer in the American tradition."
Horatio Alger with trimmings; poor lad with a dream, a dream come true.
"An airplane accident," said Helen, sighing. "I wonder how you bring yourself to fly, Terry."
Terry said quietly, "But he was piloting his own plane, and he was a very good pilot, not at all reckless. The doctors think he may have had a stroke and lost control. His blood pressure had been high. We'll never know, of course." She knew.
Southard said, directing the conversation into less unhappy channels, "I account for your accent now, Miss Austin."
"My accent?" she repeated, amazed. "But I haven't any!"
Helen chuckled. "My poor darling, indeed you have. That's what comes of going to school in France and Switzerland, of holidays in England, and of being born in a Spanish-speaking country and returning to it."
"But I was born here," said Terry, laughing, "didn't you know that? I was born in New York City."
"And I thought I knew everything about you!" said Helen.
You don't, thought Terry, not now.
She said aloud, "And I haven't an accent!"
Southard disagreed. "It's very charming," he said, "don't lose it." They reached his house, an old brownstone in the Fifties with a big studio on the top floor, and he took his leave of them, asking Helen, "Can't Katie and I coax you to bring Miss Austin to dinner? I know Frank is allergic to dining out, but--"
"Tell Katie to call me," said Terry.

SWO Team Pilots To Pick All-Stars

Southwestern Ohio Baseball League will be made known after the meeting of team managers August 28.
The get-together of the pilots at Tom Smalley's home, 1227 South Main Street, will select the dream team from all the clubs in the league except the one finishing in first-place.

The league-leaders will face a handicapped cast that will include the two or three outstanding players from each team it faced during the season.
In each game played, you find a couple of opposing players who get in your hair with their superb pitching, hitting or fielding.
Imagine nine guys like that on the field and it's almost enough to keep you in the dugout.
This feature attraction of the SWO League will be scheduled sometime in September, probably the 18th, according to Smalley, manager of the Good Hope club.

Four from Here In Car Wreck At Mt. Sterling

WHS Coach Lewis
And Rolland Chase
Among Injured

Four residents of Washington C. H., including Stephen Lewis, basketball coach at WHS and Rolland Chase, county school music director, were recovering from injuries received in a truck-car crash early Thursday outside of Mt. Sterling.

Lewis and Art Grim, 27, a student in the school of journalism at OSU, were taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital in Columbus for treatment of cuts and bruises.

Chase, 27, and George Callon, 24, were treated by a physician in Mt. Sterling and taken home.

None of the occupants of the car, driven by Chase, received broken bones, according to reports.

All were en route from Washington C. H. to Columbus when the accident occurred.

Chase's car collided with a truck driven by John J. Skender, who was headed south. When the two vehicles collided, they had both turned off the highway and were in a garage lot off the side of the road.

Chase's car was virtually demolished.

Both Lewis and Grim were taken home from Mt. Carmel Hospital late Thursday. Lewis received cuts around the forehead, eye and ankle, while Grim received cuts around the head. Several stitches were required on each man.

The four men have been taking summer courses at OSU, which were all nearing completion, when the wreck occurred. Two or three of the men said they planned to have X-rays taken to determine the extent of injuries.

Most of them were resting up today from stiff joints. All said they were fortunate to get out of the accident without receiving more serious injuries.

City Teaching Corps

lumbus, is to teach vocal music and Jack White, 27, a graduate of WHS in the class of 1940, is to teach American history and government.

Stephen Brown, new superintendent of schools, said the three teachers round out the staff for the school year 1949-50.

He indicated at the last regular school board meeting that he was particularly anxious to complete the staff since it was becoming more and more difficult as the school year approached to find teachers.

The new principal of Central School formerly taught at Bloomington in 1943 and 1944 and holds his life certificate for elementary teaching.

Gorman was graduated from Wilmington College in 1937 with a B.S. in education and did graduate work at the University of Cincinnati. He is married and has two children.

Jack White is well known here. He was graduated from Ohio State University with a major in social studies and minors in business.

He has completed 20 hours towards his master's degree in history. During World War II, he was with the army overseas as a first lieutenant in the field artillery. He is married.

The new vocal music instructor, William Bowman, received his B.S. degree in education from Ohio State University. During World War II he was a corporal in the army in Europe. He is single.

Bowman replaces the former Miss Jahala McCorkle, who was married recently to Joseph F. Tomaselli.

Two Pheasants Cost $300 Each

Three Face Charges
At Greenfield

Pearl Gragg and Homer Gragg, Greenfield, and James Towne, route 3, Leesburg, each drew $200 and costs in Mayor J. Wesley Kelley's court, Greenfield, at an early hour Friday morning, on charges growing out of killing pheasants from the highway, filed against them by Irvin J. Patrick, Fayette County conservation officer.

Patrick had received word of the three men being involved in pheasant shooting from the highway, and the trio was arrested after midnight Thursday and taken before the Greenfield mayor where the fines were levied.

Towne was fined $100 in each case for possession of two pheasants; Homer Gragg drew $100 each for aiding and abetting the pheasant killing, and Pearl Gragg was fined a similar amount for possessing the birds.

Complaints had been made that the men had been killing pheasants on the highways around Greenfield, and when a charge of shot fired at a pheasant nearly struck a farmer, he proceeded to get busy, with the result that Patrick was called and the trio was arrested and fined.

Towne paid his fine and the Graggs were sent to jail in lieu of payment.

Mrs. Elva Hewitt read an article on the importance of keeping a diary and John Weade talked on the question, "What do you or I get out of a grange?" James Wolfe was reinstated as a member at the meeting.

It was also announced that a bake sale would be held by the Grange on September 3.

SOIL CONSERVATION CAN MAKE A COMMUNITY RICH

The profitability of conservation of soil, water and fertility have been pretty well established in the case cited from the studies of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis under its president, Chester C. Davis, about which I was telling you the last time, the increased annual income from crop production was $1,825 during the first ten years when the program was getting under way.

Think what the economic impact would be on a small rural community if 10 of 20 farmers achieved similar results. Or think what affect similar results on 500 or 600 farms in the Washington C. H. trading area would have on bank deposits and the business activity of the town.

Fighters Arrested Thursday Evening

Maurice William Bising, Covington, Ky., posted $10 bond for failing to stop at a stop street. Forrest Beverly Lininger, 18, city, was cited for running a red light.

—AND NOT SATISFACTORY
UNDER "IMPERSONAL" REGIMENTATION

EVERY DAY you hear young mothers telling how they traveled clear across the country, to place themselves in the hands of their special physician, for pre-natal care, delivery and care of their babies.

To practically all women it is reassuring and comforting, at such an important time, to have the advice and medical attention of a physician who is thoroughly and personally interested.

It is a very unsatisfactory time to be a "number or a statistic." Personal supervision and care during the pre-natal period has a profound effect on the general health of the mother, and physical well-being of the child.

Public health activities to eliminate social disease in parents; maternity education; bettering hospital facilities — these lend themselves to community cooperation... but most American mothers prefer their "personal" physician.

Pipe Liner Is Badly Injured

Jaw Fractured While Using Digger

L. L. Loggins, 30, of Augusta, Texas, one of the operators of a trench cutter used in connection with laying the 26-inch pipe line of the Texas Eastern Transmission Co., was injured seriously, Thursday afternoon, when a steel lever he was using was twisted from his hands, one end of it catching in the machinery of the trench cutter, and the other end struck him with great force, fracturing his lower jaw and inflicting other injuries.

The accident occurred in western Fayette County not far from Plymouth, and Loggins was brought to the office of Dr. Marvin Rossmann, given attention and then removed to the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, the Gerstner ambulance being used for both trips.

It was first feared that he had sustained a fractured neck as well as the other injuries, but X-ray examination failed to disclose a fractured neck.

His jaw was badly crushed by the force of the steel lever.

Friday word from the hospital was to the effect that Loggins had rallied and had more than an even chance for recovery.

Several From Here To Attend Friends Of Land Dinner

Judge and Mrs. Harry M. Rankin and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penn are among the first Fayette County citizens to make plans to attend the dinner and celebration on August 24 at McConnelsville, arranged by the Morgan County Chapter of Friends of the Land.

The meeting starts with a chicken dinner at the Athletic Club there, if weather is agreeable, otherwise it will be held at the high school building. Dr. Jonathan Forman, one of the nationally known leaders of this organization, is scheduled as principal speaker.

Ralph Penn has accepted the duty of making reservations for any Fayette County people who desire to attend. He states that such reservations may be arranged as late as 6 P. M. Saturday, August 20. It is announced that ladies are especially welcome and that representatives of Friends of the Land from all over central and southern Ohio are planning attendance.
